

About Norway Cup

The Norway Cup is an International Soccer Tournament in Oslo, Norway. 2007 marks the 35th anniversary of this tournament which attracts over 30,000 athletes ages 10-19 comprising 1560 teams from 45 countries. Santa Barbara United is composed of girls ages 11-13. It is the team's goal to participate in the Norway Cup and spread the love of athletics, soccer, and good sportsmanship. The girls will be participating in homestays in Lillehammer prior to the start of the 8 day tournament. In Lillehammer they will scrimmage against girls' teams from Norway. The team is actively fundraising to meet the needs of all girls. Thank you for your contribution.

Santa Barbara United Soccer

The Road to NORWAY CUP
July 28-Aug. 4
Oslo, Norway

Meet SANTA BARBARA UNITED

Santa Barbara United consists of 14 girls ages 11-13 who began as an AYSO All-Star team in the Fall of 2006. Under the leadership of the two coaches, Edward Bonn and Daniel Corry and with the help of our Norwegian liaisons (team parents) Age Solheim and Brit Svoen, we've decided to make a journey of a lifetime to Oslo, Norway this July to play in the Norway Cup. The Norway Cup is the largest soccer tournament in the world for young people: 1560 teams from 45 countries. Santa Barbara United is one of two teams from the United States playing in this tournament! The skills, character, and excitement that these girls possess has encouraged its team leaders to make this dream become a reality. Santa Barbara United members are: Tiana Bonn, Coral Brom, Jordan Corry, Tessa Dewell, Mari Eisenbeisz, Scout Frank, Ashley Jackson, Savanna Jordan, Meghan Maguire, Claire Mathews, Madeline Mathews, Mallory Meyer and Une Solheim. These girls represent some of the best soccer players that Santa Barbara has to offer. They will be sharing their Santa Barbara soccer pride as they run, kick, cheer, and applaud their way around Norway.

OUR MISSION

The expense of this trip was one of the considerations before making this commitment. But, Santa Barbara United knows that, with the generous support of our friends, families and local community sponsors, they will be able to make this dream a reality. You can see the options for different support levels on the following page. We appreciate anything you can donate to support our trip, as this helps us to reach our goal of raising $48,000.00 for our entire team.
